

Purpose of Session

Periodically, employees have to make difficult decisions on the job. Taking the time to examine one's typical approach to making decisions can be beneficial

Discussing this topic with a mentor can help.

Questions & Discussion Prompts

Discuss how you both go about making difficult decisions.

How has this strategy worked/not worked in the past?

What strategies help you to organize your thoughts and evaluate your options when making decisions? (Ex: writing out pros and cons, listing possible options, etc.)

Who do you usually use as a sounding board when making difficult decisions?

How do ethics and morals factor into the equation?

Discuss a time when you had to make a decision that was not going to be well received by others. How did you handle this?

Additional Ideas/Notes/Reminders

